

Research as a core mission of Public Hospitals

Become skilled at incorporating the Radiation key factors, Data & Tissue banking considerations in your research projects

Confirm you have secured your responsibilities and requirements.

Ensure your protocol encompasses all these factors.

VMIA & Austin Health Office for Research invite you to attend the Research Governance Training:

Module 4: Data, Tissue Banking and Radiation

The training will include:

- Radiation Principles & definitions
 - Responsibilities & Requirements
- Tissue banking & Data collection
 - Types of tissue and data
 - Good Data Management Practices
 - Data collection
 - De-identification
 - Data access & storage
 - Informed Consent & Privacy
- Protocol Design Considerations

Presenters

Paul Einsiedel, Medical Physicist and Radiation Safety Officer, Dept of Radiology, RMH; Anne Thompson, CEO, Vic Cancer Biobank
Larissa Popowski, Clinical Trial Manager, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre; Carolyn Stewart, Director of Operations CCS, Nucleus Network

Date: 18th October, 2011 from 1.30pm to 3.30pm

Venue: Level 4 Lecture Theatre, Education Precinct, Austin Tower

Slides can be downloaded at : <http://www.nucleusnetwork.com.au/page.aspx?140>