

RESEARCH FEST

OCTOBER 2022

Nursing Research Award

AIM:

To assist attendance at a national research meeting or conference or training course approved by Head of Department.

Attendance at conferences where the awardee is making a presentation (poster or oral) will be more favourably received. Registration fees, training course fees, travel costs and a per diem rate as currently determined by the Australian Taxation Office (to cover accommodation and meals) can be claimed for these awards.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Nursing professionals and nursing students.
- Quality of abstract submitted for ResearchFest.

PRIZE

$750 reimbursement of costs associated with attendance at a research meeting or conference or training course approved by Head of Department.

Researchers are asked to indicate on their abstract submission form if they wish to apply. Only eligible researchers should apply

Presentation will be made during ResearchFest 2022 on Thursday 20 October, applicants are expected to be present.

The award should be redeemed before April 2024
